The Facts About the Camilla Riot The Facts About the Camilla rices. We lay before our reader: this morning the statements of both sides in regard to the Camilla riot. As we expected, the facts in the case show that Pierce and Murphy deliberately provoked this collision, and after leading their duped rabble of negroes into danger, left them to get out of it as best they Georgia by violence. They set their triggers for a grand outrage at Camilla, to come off as soon as Congress met, and to be used for m-fluencing that body and for justifying any arbitrary measures it might pass. Shameless Impudence. A day or two since we took occasion A day or two since we took occasion to call the attention of the readers of the Courier, in an article of some length, to the systematic misrepresentation recorted to by Radical journals as a means of advancing the interests of their party in the present campaign. We charged that not only were actual occurrences constantly perverted and distorted in the accounts. perverted and distorted in the accounts given by these journals, but that the ingenevents, however, proved that the change perverted and distorted in the account given by these journals, but that the ingentity of Radieal editors and correspondents was kept constantly on the stretch for the invention of fictions militating, or supposed to militate, against the Democratic party. Since then, we have been furnished in the comments of the Jacobin Press upon the affert at Camilla, with a most striking exemplification of the truth of what we alleged. In referring to one out of many such articles in relation to the subject, as we propose to do, we need scarcely assure-our readers that the selection is not made because it is exceptionally objectionable, but simply because it happens to be before us as we write.

laws in this State, and that the civil officers are prevented from discharging their duties by them and from the people.

At a large meeting held here last night resolutions were adopted asserting that the State is peaceable; that the Governor has not been obliged to call on the clitizens to all in informing the laws, and denouncing the statements and apprehensions contrided in the memorial as untrue in every particular, that nothing tending to distart the ponce will be counted as untrue in every particular, that nothing tending to distart the ponce will be counted in the process of the State, and indorsing the letter of Gen. Lee to Gen. Rosecrans.

They denounce the Legislature as misrepresenting the people and robbing them, by extempting to cheat the people out of an election for President, and declare them capable of perpetrating even greater wrongs than the adoption of the memorial.

FORT WALLACE, Sept. 24.—A secont who left col. Forsyth's camp on the night of the 19th came in to-day, and reports that the party had plenty of ammunition and were in good spirits. Their rations were all gone, and their only dependence was horse and mule meat. Forsyth thought if it became absolutely necessary they could asstain themselves six days longer. The Indians were evidently sick of their bargain; and were into for the condition of the wound ed they would east in the following to the wound ed they would come through to Wallace, and they were confident of whipping the enemy, it attacked.

The Indians lost 35 killed, a large number wounded and a considerable number of stock killed and disabled. They removed the dead from the field at night, though some were took cose to our men to veniure after with sadity, It was confidently expected that Bankhead and Carpener would reach with the salety. THE LAST OF SURBATT.

Marshal Bussy was this afternoon paying those summoned in the Surrait case. It is believed that, no further steps will be taken prosecute him, in view of the great expense to which the government has been to in his arrest and former trials.

Robert T. Lincoln, eldest son of President Lincoln, was married this evening to Miss Mary Harlan, only daughter of Senstor Har-lan, of lowa, at the residence of Mr. Harlan, by Bishop Simpson. Secretarics McCulloch and Welles, Senator Ramsey, Representative Laughridge, Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, Senator Harlan and a few other distinguished persons, were present.
